

RCE European Meeting 2020: Session and Content Links

Day One, Tuesday 24th November 2020

Timing (all times UTC)	Session Link (click link to join before start time)	Pre-recorded Content Links
10.00am to 10.30am	Welcome Drinks	Welcome from RCE East Midlands Welcome from Japanese Ministry of Environment
10.30am to 11.45am	Climate Emergency: joined-up action
12.00pm to 1.00pm	Open Space Room 1 Open Space Room 2 Open Space Room 3 Open Space Room 4
2.00pm to 3.30pm	Session 1: SDGs Labs - joint forces between academia and business.
	Session 2: Carbon and Climate Literacy	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Introduction to Carbon Literacy, Andrew Reeves, RCE East Midlands Carbon Literacy in Schools. Lee Jowett and Amy Peace, Leicester City Council.
	Session 3: Arts, Creativity, Fashion and Sustainability	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Art and Climate - Using Creativity to Understand the Crisis. Laura Curtis-Moss, RCE Scotland, UK Re-imagining the landscape of future living and learning through bio-material exploration. Sabine Lettmann, Zoe Hillyard and Beth White, Birmingham City University, UK Sustainability approaches with Fashion and Textiles higher education. Carolyn Hardaker and Buddy Penfold, De Montfort University, UK
	Session 4: Climate Emergency and Place	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> The Well-being of Future Generations: a framework for joined-up action on climate emergency. Gwenith Elias, RCE Cymru/Wales, UK (Part 1); and (Part 2) Education for Sustainable Development as a key factor of the future of a European City. Dr. Christian Buettner, RCE Nuremberg Crowd mapping as an Efficient Tool for Citizens' Engagement in local climate adaptation practices. Kate Sposab, RCE Belarus. Climate Emergency in Brittany and after COVID 19. Françoise Laveuve, RCE Brittany
3.30pm to 4.00pm	Closing Plenary
6.30pm to 8.00pm	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> The King's Head: Virtual Pub Adam's Fruits & Nuts A Taste of Leicester: Cooking and Conversation

For online discussion throughout, visit our Padlet page: <https://padlet.com/rceeastmids/RCEEuro2020>

At any time during the event three breakout rooms are available for ad hoc meetings:

Breakout Room 1	Breakout Room 2	Breakout Room 3
---------------------------------	---------------------------------	---------------------------------

If you have technical difficulties at any point, visit the Padlet page or contact Hannah Sellers (hjs23@le.ac.uk).

Day Two, Wednesday 25th November 2020

Timing (all times UTC)	Session Link (click link to join before start time)	Pre-recorded Content Links
9.30am to 11.30am	European RCEs in Action	RCE Short Updates Update from RCE Global Secretariat
11.45am to 1.00pm	Session 1: Covid-19, ESD and Building Back Better	Padlet of pre-session content.
	Session 2: Youth Voice and Climate Action
	Session3: Climate Justice and ESD	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Confronting social engineering with ESD: the case of destructive mining - Joám Evans Pim, RCE Galicia & Montescola Foundation, Spain Climate Justice Education: Between Social Movement Learning and Schooling - Beth Christie, RCE Scotland, UK
	Session 4: The climate emergency: meeting the challenge of student activism in uncertain times.
2.00pm to 3.00pm	Session 1: Schools, Youth, Nature Education and Sustainability	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Germinating Life, Cultivating a Pocket Garden: Cecilia Eyssartier and Luis Monterubianesi, RCE Rhur, Germany Youth for Trees: Developing outdoor climate activities and action through trees and forests: Adam Cade, RCE East Midlands, UK Empowering young people to bring about change. Debs McCahon, Woodcraft Folk, UK
	Session 2: Schools, ESD and Global Learning	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> ESD Supervision 4.0 – policy making and campaigning: Betsy King, RCE Scotland and Detlev Lindau-Bank, RCE Oldenburger Münsterland Connecting Classrooms through Global Learning: enabling joined-up action for a better world: Kirsten Leask, RCE Scotland, UK
	Session 3: The new COMMEET toolkit for community groups: Promoting the wellbeing of migrants and displaced persons
	Session 4: Key Concepts for sustainability in higher education: Systems Thinking and the SDGs	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Mapping your organisation's contribution to the UN SDGs. Asha Mistry, University of Leicester, RCE East Midlands, UK Systems Thinking as a Threshold Concept for Sustainable Education. Dr Jemma Browne, Dr Matthew Jones, Dr Sandra Costa, Dawn Parke, Birmingham City University, UK
3.00pm to 3.30pm	Closing Plenary

For online discussion throughout, visit our Padlet page: <https://padlet.com/rceeastmids/RCEEuro2020>

At any time during the event three breakout rooms are available for ad hoc meetings:

Breakout Room 1	Breakout Room 2	Breakout Room 3
---------------------------------	---------------------------------	---------------------------------

If you have technical difficulties at any point, visit the Padlet page or contact Hannah Sellers (hjs23@le.ac.uk).