CODESIGNS ESD AI COACH LAUNCH

 Register Now

This online event hosted by De Montfort University is designed for academics and educational professionals who support teaching and learning and are interested in integrating Education for Sustainable Development (ESD) into curricula with the assistance of GenAI.

Join this session to critically explore the sustainability benefits and impacts of GenAI, discover the CoDesignS ESD AI Coach and gain early access to this open-access tool. Please note that while the AI Coach will be freely available, you will need a free ChatGPT account to use it.
